

OBSERVATION PROTOCOLS

- The instructor list below includes all the instructors at Pure Passion Pilates who have agreed to participate in the Observation portion of the Pure Passion Pilates Certification Program. You need to send your Observation Requests to ppptraining2018@gmail.com every Friday for the following week. If we don't receive them on time you might not be able to observe classes for that week.
- No more than two students may observe any class other than Billie's classes at a time. If there are two students observing, you may not communicate with one another while the class is in progress. The instructor has the right to ask you to leave if you disrupt the class.
- Sit quietly around the perimeter of the studio in the designated areas. (Wunda Chairs are not for you to sit)
- Do not engage in conversation with the instructor or the clients during a class.
- Write down any questions or comments, but refrain from verbalizing them in front of the clients or interrupting the instructor who is teaching.
- Please keep fragrances to a minimum.
- No Cell phone what so ever while observing a class.
